ENGLISH 9CV: Creative Expression in Writing (Shannon Renae Pufahl)

Hello everyone, and welcome to Creative Expressions! I'm really looking forward to meeting you all and working with you this summer.

You'll find attached a schedule for our first and second weeks of class. I am still working on importing content to our Canvas page and managing the calendar. All the assignments and readings through the first two weeks are now live; I will get the rest of our content online as soon as I can. I will be traveling through July 1st so may be a bit slow with email, but I will get back to you!

If you have any difficulty navigating Canvas, or come across a locked file or dead link, let me know! I try to check everything but occasionally I miss stuff.

Please also check out the syllabus and policies attached. If you have questions about anything, do let me know. I think the schedule should be fairly straightforward.

Please note that this course is asynchronous -- there is no weekly class meeting. We will post all content -- including discussions and assignments -- on Canvas. We will, however, meet for one-on-one conferences in week 6. I encourage you to meet with me sooner though! This class will be most meaningful to those who make the effort and reach out!

We will be working in groups fairly often, so you will have a chance to meet your classmates and heighten engagement. I will post a brief welcome video this week with further instructions and information about the course (as well as myself!).

Any questions, don't hesitate to reach out! I look forward to meeting all of you and working together this summer.

Warm wishes,

Shannon
